Paula Pryke is a world renowned florist who has been based in London for nearly thirty years, with an enviable A-list clientele.

In 1988 Paula had a dream of opening a little flower shop in Islington. From these humble beginnings she changed the face of British floristry with a reputation for cutting edge innovative floral designs, attracting international attention. Paula Pryke Flowers is now in constant demand to design flowers for everything from weddings and dinner parties to press launches, award ceremonies and government and state functions.

Initially Paula's style was embraced in Japan and America, but more recently she has been influencing floral design whilst working in Korea, China, India and South America, establishing her globally as one of the world's top florists.

Paula has written 16 books since 1993, which are sold internationally and have been translated into over 13 languages. Titles include Table Flowers, Simply Pink, Decorating with Flowers, The Ultimate Floral Collection, Flower School, Seasonal Wreaths & Bouquets, Flowers Every Day, and Wedding Flowers. The latest book, Floristry Now, was published by Jacqui Small in March 2017.

She also writes for many magazines and is often on television in the UK and abroad; in 2004 she trained several former prisoners to open their own flower shop for Channel 4's One Last Job.

In 2014 Paula was honoured with an OBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List for services to the Floristry Industry in recognition of distinguished and valuable service.

Paula's philosophy has been embraced in Europe, America and Asia where she is in regular demand for lectures and floral demonstrations and has run her world famous flower school since 1994. Her prestigious internationally acclaimed 'Career Course' has become something of a blueprint for flower courses around the country, offering a unique in-road into floristry for frustrated florists considering a career change as Paula herself once did. In 2016 she launched a luxury online flower delivery service at paulapryke.com
